

Engage the Power of Your Personality

Merrick Rosenberg guides audience members to discover the most interesting topic of all - themselves! Using his reimagined version of how people learn about personality, Merrick teaches people how to tap into the use their personality to build stronger relationships and get better results.

Through entertaining stories, Merrick will share the insights he gained from working with entry-level staff to CEOs for nearly 30 years. His talks captivate audiences, as participants learn about themselves and the people in their lives. They will learn how to stop imposing their personality on others and instead adapt with chameleon-like flexibility to be better communicators, contributors, and leaders.

Attendees will:

- Discover the four personalities you meet every day
- Learn why you click with some and clank with others... and what to do about it!
- Gain the ability to quickly and accurately read anyone's personality
- Heighten your emotional intelligence through greater self and social awareness
- Understand how overusing strengths creates weakness and pushes people's buttons
